What is this product?

- Type: The product is a sub-fund of an ICAV (Irish Collective Asset-Management Vehicle).
- Term: This product has no specific maturity date.

In certain circumstances, as described in the Fund prospectus, the Sub-Fund may be unilaterally terminated or merged with another product following written notice to unitholders subject to compliance with the Fund prospectus and applicable regulation.

Objectives

The Sub-Fund's objective is to outperform by 2.5% per annum the Benchmark index, which is denominated in USD and made up of 50% J.P. Morgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global Diversified and 50% J.P. Morgan Government Bond Index Emerging Market Global Diversified unhedged. The Benchmark index is unhedged against currency risk. There can be no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.

To seek to achieve that objective, the Sub-Fund invests directly or indirectly (through collective investment schemes or the use of financial derivatives) in debt securities and currency markets. The Sub-Fund will primarily invest in debt securities (including fixed rate, floating rate and variable rate notes), which are issued by either government, supranational, or corporate entities located within emerging markets as well as investments in currency markets. The Fund may also invest in debt securities with embedded derivative instruments such as convertible bonds, warrants, convertible preference shares, index-linked debt securities, credit-linked notes, preferred stock and collateralised securities (such as Asset-Backed / Mortgage-Backed Securities). The Sub-fund does not aim to replicate the Benchmark and therefore may deviate from it.

Up to 100% of the net assets of the Sub-Fund may be invested in below investment grade securities.

The Sub-Fund may also hold substantial amounts in cash or ancillary liquid assets (including short term money market instruments and cash deposits), depending on prevailing market conditions.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed. Its management objective is based upon the Benchmark index, which is also a component of the performance fee calculation scheme. The Sub-Fund may invest in instruments included in the index, but the Sub-Fund's strategies and holdings are in no way constrained by the Benchmark and deviations may be significant. Investment decisions are based on a combination of "top-down" analysis (consideration of economic fundamentals and market sentiment) and a "bottom up" analysis (which is focused on credit analysis based on factors such as competitiveness, cash flows and expected level of growth). The Sub-Fund may utilise financial derivative instruments such as futures, options, swaps and forwards, which may be traded on one or more stock markets or may be negotiated directly with financial institutions. The Sub-Fund may hold currencies for investment purposes or in order to hedge the Sub-Fund's exposure to currencies. The Sub-Fund may be exposed to all currencies. For full investment objective and policy information please refer to the Sub-Fund Supplement.

You may request the sale of your product on a daily basis. However, exceptionally, this could be restricted in certain circumstances. You will find additional information in the How long should I hold it and can I take my money out early? section. Dividends are not intended to be distributed. Any income derived from the product is reinvested.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 3 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 6 out of 7, which is the second-highest risk class. This classification rates the potential losses from future performance at a high level, and poor market conditions are very likely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Other risks materially relevant to the product not included in the summary risk indicator: performances of this product might be negatively impacted by liquidity risk, credit risk, financial derivatives instruments risk and counterparty risk.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product and a suitable benchmark over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods. We have assumed:

- In the first year, you would get back the amount that you invested (0 % annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 3 years

The recommended holding period corresponds to the period of time during which you must remain invested in the product to obtain a potential return while minimizing the risk of losses. This duration was defined by taking into account the risk-reward profile, invested assets, management objective and investment strategy of the product.

You can request the sale of your product on a daily basis, however the ICAV Directors may decide (in order to protect the interests of the Sub-Fund's shareholders) to limit redemption activity on a given day if redemptions exceed a threshold of 10% of the total number of shares of the Sub-Fund in issue on that day or 10% or more of the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund. Should a limit be imposed, any redemption activity in excess of one of the above mentioned thresholds on such dealing day shall be reduced pro rata and Shares which are not redeemed by reason of such reduction shall be treated as if a request for redemption had been made in respect of each subsequent dealing day until all shares to which the original request related have been redeemed. You may receive less than expected if you cash in earlier than the recommended holding period. The recommended holding period is an estimate and must not be taken as a guarantee or an indication of future performance, return or risk levels.

Redemption requests are received daily by 11.30 a.m. at the latest and are executed daily.
